SAFE CYCLING

- Know your limits. Always bring sufficient water and food to last your journey.
- Check DBCA Park Alerts and Emergency WA prior to riding. Be prepared for road closures.
- Keep to the left of the road and allow clear passage for passing traffic.
- Wear a helmet, brightly coloured clothing and have lights on your bike.
- Communication is the key; signal or call your intentions and hazards to ensure your safety and the safety of those near you.
- These are self-guided routes, riders must acknowledge and accept that you are riding at your own risk.
- Some of the routes pass through remote areas where internet/mobile phone service is not reliable. Bring a dedicated GPS unit and arrange a backup communication plan

This timetable gives you an indication of how long it will take you to ride a certain distance.

THE OASIS

This short yet scenic loop takes riders past the iconic Gloucester Tree, then up the picturesque Glauders Road, a route steeped in the history of Pemberton's early settlers.

The ride concludes with a brief highway sprint, followed by a descent through the valley on Conte Road.

It's the perfect introduction to Pemberton's gravel riding, with a few punchy climbs to get the legs working. For those craving a little extra, a detour to the Cascades offers a scenic stop and an additional hill climb challenge.

FOX HUNTING

As the name suggests, this route leads you out of town via Fox Road and scenic sealed farm roads before hitting the popular Smiths Road climb and descent. The ride brings you back through the Karri trees on world-class gravel, passing the serene Big Brook Arboretum.

You'll finish up on Stirling Road, rolling past the Pemberton MTB Park.

With a perfect blend of gravel and sealed roads, and stunning views of farmland and Karri forest, this ride offers a truly memorable experience.

MOONS CROSSING

A classic Pemberton ride, this route takes you out the back of town to the scenic Moons Crossing, before heading back via Collins Road and the Munda Biddi.

Riders can enjoy a perfect mix of gravel roads with a touch of fire-track excitement on the return leg.

If your legs are up for it, a short detour to the River Road Bridge is a must-see highlight.

LOGGERS

Enjoy wide-open gravel on the historic logging highways of Gloucester Road and Palings Road.

Head back to town on Smiths Road and the Tramway Trail, rolling past the stunning Big Brook Dam.

If you have time, a leisurely spin around the picturesque sealed path at Big Brook is a must. It's a shared-use trail and quite popular, so be sure to ride with care.

Local's Tip: If singletrack is on the cards, the Munda Biddi switchbacks behind the Gloucester Tree offer a thrilling alternative to the Burma Road descent and climb.
